We developed the concept for our Mission. We hired Executive Director, Nick Sgarlata. We organized the board of directors, whom all contribute some level of expertise in their field, and includes several who work with foster children now, and one young man who was in foster care and has aged out and made the transition to adulthood. We purchased an 8 unit appartment building in late September 2021, to house youth as we mentor them and help them make the transition to adults who contribute to society. Our first youth joined the program in October 2021.
